Customized Seating

Select from thousands of seating options, including chairs specifically designed for an educational environment. Select height, materials, features and colors that are most appropriate for your specific tasks or environment. Ergonomics are critical, so our chairs and stools are designed to allow user to make adjustments to seats and backs and to add arms and foot rings where appropriate to provide optimal comfort and support.

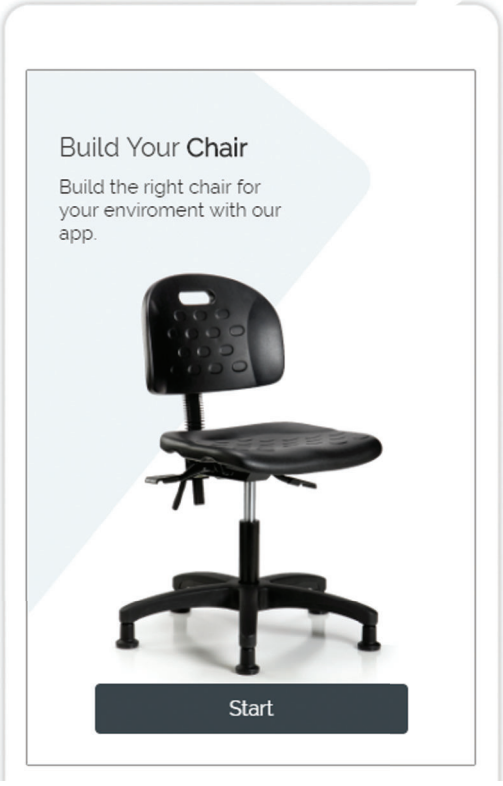

In the following pages, we have provided examples of our popular seating options for education. Any of these can be customized. Please use the link below to create a seating option that will work for you.
